An Appeal to the Christian Public.-We contacts nestify. Hopomygane, relatively destitute of Christian instruction and privimere years ago the attention of the ladies of the Society particularly turned to the Five Points. The destitution of its miserable population called loudly to them for succor, ad every fiber of their hearts responded to the cry. In compliance with the most argent solicitation of the Board (comsord of fifty ladies) a Committee of gentlemen surveyed the ledd, and reported that there was no opening—that no suitatle place could be obtained—and that for the present their deal waiters must be relinquisited.

During the year, prayers and hopes and determinations bastered round that degraded spot, and though at its close not make the place of the transmission of the Board unanimonaly resolved "to request the Conference, then in session to grant them a missionary," in strong faith that some way would open before them.

In compliance with this request, the Bishops appointed feet. L. K. Pease to that station, who, in conjunction with the Committee of gentlemen, succeeded in obtaining the fission-Room on the corner of Little Water and Cross-sis.

A Sabbath School was immediately organized. Sabbath praching and week evening meetings, and various other means for the temporal and spiritual benefit of the population, soon grew out of this determined effort. Among these was the Industrial Home, the object of which was to give work to the poor, and to promote the cause of Temperance.

At the close of the first year the National Temperance Society assumed the entire responsibility of the Industrial Home, and Rev. Mr. Pease became their agent.

The Ladies' Society, keeping steadily in view the spiritual interests of that heathen population, applied for a second missionary, and the Rev. Mr. Luckey (laft Chaplain to the Sias Sing State Prison) succeeded Mr. Prase, and for the last year has been laboring in that ardinons field. He and his devoted wife have penetrated its dark alleys, have explored every avenue of Cow Bay and the Old B
